

Worksheet 4

Comprehension Read the passage below and answer the questions:

A group of animals were playing a game. The captains were chosen based on the length of their names. The captain of the first team had the longest name, and the captain of the second team had the shortest name. The animals were: Tiger, Elephant, Deer, Rat, Monkey, Ox, Dog, Snake, Goat, Lion.

Questions

1. Who is the captain of the first team (longest name)? _____
2. Who is the captain of the second team (shortest name)? _____
3. Objective: Which animal has the shortest name?
  - (a) Rat
  - (b) Elephant
  - (c) Monkey
4. Subjective: Why do you think they chose the captain based on the length of the name?
5. How many letters does the name "Elephant" have? _____
6. Group the following based on the length of their name (long or short):
  - Deer, Snake, Tiger, Ox
7. True/False: The animal with the longest name is the captain of the first team.
_____
8. How many animals have more than 4 letters in their name? _____
9. Match the following:
  - Tiger _____ Five letters
  - Ox _____ ..... letters
10. Write the name of any animal with a longer name than Elephant. _____
11. Fill in the blanks: The captain of the second team has the _____ name.
12. Creative Question: Can you think of other ways to divide the animals into teams?
13. Which animal has the second shortest name? _____
14. Write a story: Create a short story where animals are chosen for teams based on something other than their name length.
15. Challenge: If two more animals join the game, and one has a longer name than Elephant, who might become the new captain? _____